2. [REDACTED] Semenov will be placed in charge of the German Section in the Soviet Foreign Ministry. His chief aim will be the diplomatic recognition of the West German Republic. In order to counterbalance this move, Pushkin had been ordered by the Kremlin to take steps for a full-scale Sovietization of the GDR.

25X1

[REDACTED] for the Germans the present state of affairs looked very dismal; there was no hope whatsoever that Soviet Russia would alter her attitude toward a reunification of Germany or even give up her German policy as long as the government in Bonn was so closely associated with the USA.
